QUARTERMASTER FIELD

HE MAKES SOME POPULISTIC RE-MARKS ON THE SILVER QUESTION.

Defeated the Hanover Slashers Manchesberian Complimer ted_The July Grand Jury-Death of Mrs. Barrett,

MANCHISTER BUREAU RICHMOND TIMES, 1121 HULL STREET, BEATTIE BLOCK General James Field, the Populist ex

candidate for Vice-President, made a speech of one hour's length at Midlothian Tuesday afternoon. There were only about seventy-five people present to hear the quartermaster speak, and some of them were Democrats. General Field expressed himself as opposed to the repeal of the Sherman law. He could see no advantage in such a movement. According to his views, President Cleveland and ex-President Harrison were both responsible to a great extent for the present financial depression. He was oposed to the policy of purchasing silver builtion the policy of purchasing silver buillion with gold coin, and held that to be a powerful factor in bringing about the present stringency of the money market. He charged that Mr. Cleveland was preamled when he declared that the present peritous condition with which the country is now confronted resulted from the elecution by the Executive of the making laws of Congress, evidently referring to the act of July, 1830. General Field declared that neither Mr. Cleveland vor Mr. Harrison had executed this law, nor Mr. Harrison had executed this law, but on the contrary, had wifully and deliberately ignored the most important provisions of the law, and that the present figured is made and the present figured in the present figured. provisions of the law, and that the pres-ent financial embatrassment was at-tributable to the failure of both Harri-son and Cleveland to fully execute it. They executed that portion which re-quired the purchase monthly of 4,50,000 ounces of silver buillon, and issued the certificates required, but wholly failed to carry out the third section of the law, which required so much of said buillion to be coined into money, with which to which required so much of said bullion to be coined into mency, with which to redeem the certificates or notes given for the purchase of the bullion. Without any authority of law, Mr. Harrison and Mr. Cleveland abstracted from the Treasury $48,000,000 of gold coin to redeem these certificates, which the law required should be redeemed with money coined out of the silver builion purchased under the act. As it is the duty of the President to execute the laws of Congress as enected, Mr. Harrison and Mr. Cleveland in wilfully ignoring the third section of the act, were guilty of an impeachable offense, for which Mr. Harrison should have been, and Mr. Cleveland should now offense, for which Mr. Harrison should have been, and Mr. Cleveland should now he impeached.

Mr. Cleveland, in his proclamation, suppressed the fact that both he and Mr. Harrison have disregarded this third section. The presidential oath requires the President to faithfully execute the laws, not the portion of a law, but all of it. There is no security for the neople or our free institutions, if a President is to elect to enforce a part of a law, and ignore the rest. The Constitution must be obeyed, or we have no constitutional obeyed, or we have no constitutional Government.
